

Question:

What are the meanings of "Waqf ba Harkat" and "Wasl ba Sukun"?

Answer:

The meaning of "Waqf ba Harkat" is that we utter different strokes occurring at the end of a word and pause between that word and the succeeding word. For example, while saying Ar Rahmanir Raheem we recite with stroke below Mim of Ar-Rahim and thereafter allow a pause and then say Maaleke yawmid din. And the meaning of "Wasl ba Sukun" is that we do not utter the different strokes of a word and join with the succeeding word. For example, while saying Ar Rahmanir Raheem we do not give stroke below Mim of Rahim and at once say Maaleke yawmid din. The obligatory precaution is that while offering prayers we should not resort to "Waqf ba Harkat" and "Wasl ba Sukun". Sayyed Mohammed Musawi
